

LATE REGISTRATION AND CHANGING SCHEDULES

Each semester the Academic Calendar (<https://www.clayton.edu/calendar/>) specifies a date as the last day to register for classes or to change schedules through the late registration process. After this date, the student's class schedule becomes official and can be changed only by official withdrawal. Students are obligated to pay tuition and fees for all courses registered for as of the end of Late Registration.