

DECLARING AND CHANGING MAJORS

---

Students must declare their major programs of study upon matriculation at Clayton State University. Students must meet with their advisors before changing majors to discuss any coursework requirements. Major changes for the current semester will not be accepted after drop/add. Changes will reflect the current catalog year. Major changes are submitted through the DUCK.