The Masterworks Chorus at Spivey Hall is open to all CSU faculty, staff, and students, in addition to the broad public. The Masterworks Chorus has one rehearsal each week (Sundays, 6:30-8:00 p.m.) on the campus of CSU, and performs a concert each fall and spring semester. Repertoire reflects multiple genres, styles, and periods of music; there are frequent collaborative performances alongside the CSU and Southern Crescent Symphony orchestras.

Note: CSU students do not receive course credit for this ensemble, and there is a nominal registration fee required for participation.
